TAMPA MAN WEDS MACON LADY AT DELAND

Home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Scene of Christmas Wedding.

The people of DeLand were greeted with a pleasant surprise on Christmas day by the marriage of Miss Sadie M.
 Poland to Mr. Manuel H. Jones.

Miss Poland is a young and beautiful woman of charming social qualities. She is the daughter of Dr. S.
 B. Poland of Macon, Ga. Mr. Jones is connected with J. R. Miedler, wholesale and retail groceryman of Tampa, and is known as an efficient Epworth League worker. Miss Poland was visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Wilson and in their home they were married.
 The bride wore a traveling costume of crushed mulberry. Her coat, hat, gloves and entire costume harmoniz-ing in that quiet elegance which is so much to be admired.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs.
 Wilson was decorated in the best of taste befitting such an occasion. The large hall was dainty with branches of bamboo. The parlor in which the ceremony took place was in red and green, emblematic of the day. Ropes of red and green swung bells of the same colors from the four upper corners of the room to the massive chandelier in the center. The bride and groom stood beneath a large red bell and against a bank of ferns. The ceremony was performed by Rev. U. S.
 Tabor, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church. The wedding march was played by Miss Mabel Wilson, piano, and Mr. Curtis Lindstrom, cornet.

Immediately after the ceremony, dinner was announced, and it was indeed a combination of a wedding dinner and a Christmas feast. Amid the damask, cut-glass, china and silver were served all the dainties and good things a luxurious table could demand or conceive.

The good-byes followed closely upon the feast and with many "God bless yous" the bride and groom left by auto for the afternoon train.

They go from DeLand to visit at the bride's home and by New Year's will be in Tampa, at home to their friends there, the groom having only a short period from his responsible position. Their many friends wish them a long, happy and prosperous life.

 said cow will be sold to pay charges and costs.

T. KREMER,
 Marshal, City of DeLand. December 30, 1909.

NETTLES-KINNAN.

Married—At the residence of the bride's parents, in Lake Helen, Mr.
 Frank Nettles of DeLand, to Miss Eva Kinnan. The ceremony was performed by Prof. Westlake, notary public. The wedding was strictly private, only the members of the Kinnan family being present. The couple left on the morning train for a brief visit to some of the bride's relatives, after which they will make their home in DeLand.

Waterproof Mitts.

The five or ten cent cotton mitts which are so largely bought by workingmen may be waterproofed by dipping them in melted paraffin, or, if a thinner coat is preferred and only on the palm of the mitts, melted paraffin may be brushed over their surface.
 For handling damp bricks, for working with plaster or cement, paraffin mitts are far superior to the original.
 Women will find them valuable when scrubbing floors, setting out plants, and so forth. Leather gloves for use by farmers in hauling damp corn fodder or any material that is wet may be waterproofed in the same way.
 The coating of paraffin may be renewed as often as the surface needs it.
 Mitts and gloves—even boots for ditch-ers—treated with paraffin last longer, because the water can do them little damage. The comfort the wearer experiences by using waterproofed mitts or gloves, says the Scientific American, far outweighs the bother of melting and applying the paraffin.

Very Formal.

 gate a small handout, mum?"
 "Why doesn't he ask for himself?"

 tier-Journal.

LAKE HELEN.

Lake Helen, Dec. 28.—We spent a most enjoyable Christmas at Brazeau's with a fine dinner. Table loaded down with good things, and a small table in another room for the young people.
 Mr. Thomas Turner presided at the table with the young ladies. There were 17 present. Mr. and Mrs. Brazeau, host and hostess, Mona Brazeau, their daughter, and Mrs. Bradshaw, a lady friend of old acquaintance, who came with the family to spend the winter here, and Thomas Turner, a young man who also came with them, to stay during the winter. There were also Mr. and Mrs. Skeels, Mr. and Mrs. Daggett, Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries, Mrs. Kelsey and daughter Olive, Mrs. Whitaker and brother Mr. Tubbs and a lady friend who is staying with them, Mrs. Stafford, and Ester Newton. We had a good and ample supply of music with Mrs.
 Jeffries presiding at the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Jeffries and Mr. Skeels sang a number of pieces with Mrs. Whitaker joining in occasionally. It was a jolly company and jokes, funny stories, and witicism passed around from one to another, stretching and wretching our faces with smiles and laughter continuously.

The host and hostess did all they could to make it pleasant and enjoyable for all. The party broke up at four o'clock in the afternoon with great laughter and fun with the parting salute on the front porch, all laughing as far as they could be seen or heard by the rest.

The Baptist Sunday school had their Christmas exercises Sunday morning, with a very good congregation present.
 There was a talk to the Sunday school by Rev. Mr. Richardson, pastor of the church. Sermon following with text, "Christmas gift of God to the world," well appreciated by all. Then the Christmas gifts were distributed to the children with more than enough to go around. The gifts consisting of candies and toys, nuts and apples and 8 cups and saucers were given to the older of the young misses. Good singing by the choir.

BARBERVILLE.

Barberville, Dec. 28.—A Happy New Year to all.

The Masonic lodge met Saturday night and elected their officers for the coming year.

Christmas day here began rainy but cleared up about 10 o'clock. One of the notable features of the day was the absence of booze.
